FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dear Friends:

I just received the following information and thought it might be of interest to you.

The Jennings A. Jones Chair of Excellence in Free Enterprise, the MTSU Business and Economic Research Center and the Weatherford Chair of Finance will co-sponsor an Economic Outlook Conference.

The conference will allow business leaders, faculty members, students and interested public participants to hear outstanding speakers from both the public and private sectors. The distinguished speakers will provide valuable insight into questions pertinent to today's economic issues.

Date: Friday, September 29, 2006

Time: 8:15 AM (Registration) – 1:15 PM (Adjournment)

Location:

The conference will take place in the Tennessee Room, James Union Building, Middle Tennessee State University.

Who Should Attend:

Bankers, business owners and managers, community officials and leaders, business persons, business and economics faculty members, students and those interested in the future economic growth of this region will be particularly interested in attending.

Fee:

We are pleased to offer this conference at no charge to registrants. We ask that you register so that we can make proper accommodations.

Registration:

For guaranteed registration and further information – please contact Cara Sharpton at (615) 898-2610 no later than Wednesday, September 20, 2006.

Sincerely,

Donna Rowland
State Representative
